

REAR ADMIRAL CHARLES D. SIGBEE AND MGR. JOHN P. S. CHIDWICK, Commander and Chaplain, Respectively, of the Maine When Destroyed in Havana Harbor, Laying a Memorial Wreath at the Base of the Monument to the Maine Dead, Columbus Circle Entrance to Central Park. (Photo by Kadel & Herbert.)

BOYS OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS ATHLETIC LEAGUE, WHO PARADED ON MEMORIAL DAY, 50,000 STRONG, HALT BEFORE THE OFFICIAL REVIEWING STAND AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY TO SING THE "STAR SPANGLED BANNER."

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

Governor Whitman and General J. Franklin Bell, Commanding the Department of the East, Reviewing the Memorial Day Parade On Riverside Drive.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

LAST REMNANT OF THE NEW YORK ZOUAVES MARCHED AND BORE THEIR TATTERED BANNERS IN THE MEMORIAL PARADE. (Edwin Levick.)

MARGUERITA SYLVA, Prima Donna, in Private Life the Wife of Lieutenant Bernard L. Smith, Naval Attache of the American Embassy in Paris, and Their Little Daughter, Arrive in New York to Make This Country Their Home. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

MAYOR MITCHEL, GENERAL GEORGE W. WINGATE, PRESIDENT WILLCOX, OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, AND CITY OFFICIALS SALUTING THE COLORS, BORN BY THE SCHOOL BOYMARCHERS.

(Times Photo Service.)

"TANKS" OF THE FIRST MOTOR BATTERY, N. G. N. Y., AND THE MOTOR-CYCLE BATTERY PASSING BEFORE THE MEMORIAL DAY REVIEWERS. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

LAUNCHING OF THE SCANDINAVIC, FIRST SHIP OF THE STANDARDIZED STEEL FLEET TO BE BUILT AT THE STATEN ISLAND YARDS OF THE STANDARD SHIPBUILDING CORPORATION. The Scandinavian's Keel Was Laid Just Six Weeks Before She Was Launched. She Is of 7,200 Tons, and Went Down the Ways So Fast That the Grease on Her Hull Caught Fire. (Edwin Levick.)