

STUDENT REGIMENT OF STEVENS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, HOBOKEN, N. J., TRAINING FOR WAR SERVICE IN FRANCE AS UNITED STATES ARMY ENGINEERS, TAKING THEIR DAILY "SETTING UP" EXERCISES ON THE INSTITUTE DRILL FIELD.

(Times Photo Service.)

MAYOR THOMAS B. SMITH OF PHILADELPHIA PAUSING BETWEEN TAPS STRUCK WITH A GOLD-HEADED HAMMER ON THE HISTORIC LIBERTY BELL, INDEPENDENCE HALL, AS A FINAL CALL TO THE NATION ON FLAG DAY TO SUPPORT THE LIBERTY LOAN.

Thirteen Slight Blows Were Struck, One for Each of the Original States, and the Tones of the Long-Silent Bronze Were Recorded in a Phonograph for Preservation to Future Generations.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

STEVENS INSTITUTE STUDENT REGIMENT MARCHING THROUGH THE GATE OF STEVENS CASTLE, CASTLE POINT, HOBOKEN.

(Times Photo Service.)

The New York Yankees and the St. Louis Browns, Cheered by 25,000 People, Drilling on the Polo Grounds on Last Sunday, When They Played for the Benefit of a Fund for the First Reserve Regiment of Engineers, the First Major League Game to be Seen in this City on a Sunday.

(Times Photo Service.)

MISS ADELINE HOTCHKISS, Whose Engagement to Richard Emmet Keogh, Son of Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. Martin J. Keogh, Has Been Announced.

(Aime Dupont.)

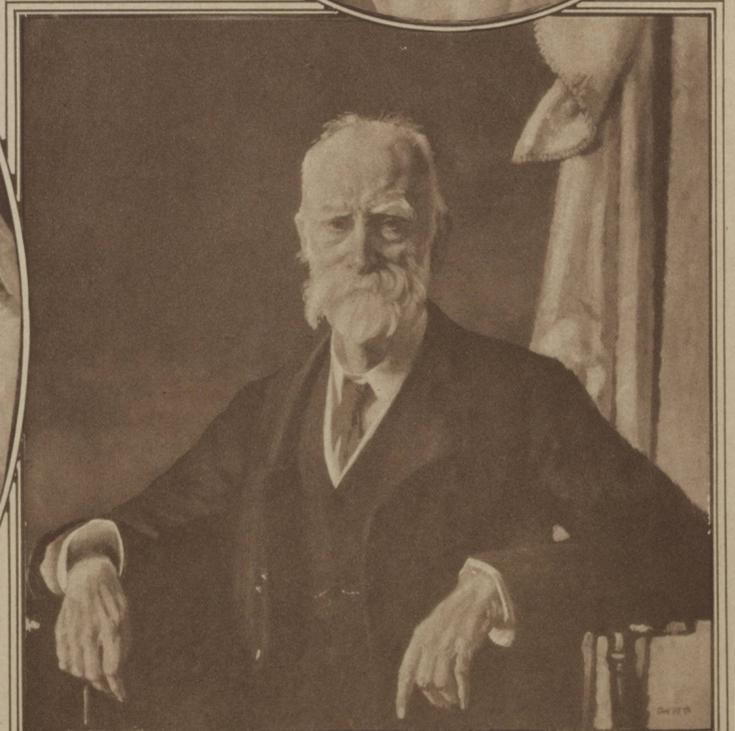

ENGLISH GIRLS, ENGAGED IN THE FOREST OF THE MARQUIS OF HERTFORD'S WARWICKSHIRE ESTATE, CUTTING AND STACKING TRENCH PROP POLES FOR THE FRENCH FRONT. The Girls Are Called by the Men Working with Them "Woodpeckers."

(Underwood & Underwood.)

MRS. BEVERLEY RANDOLPH ROBINSON, Formerly Miss Gladys Endicott, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Endicott and Granddaughter of the Late William H. Seward, Lincoln's Secretary of State.

(Photo by Curtis Bell.)

VISCOUNT JAMES BRYCE, FORMER BRITISH AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES. From a New Portrait by William Orpen, A. R. A., Now on Exhibition at the 1917 Royal Academy, London.