

SCENE IN THE CITY COLLEGE STADIUM DURING THE PAGEANT GIVEN BY THE ITALIAN SOCIETIES OF NEW YORK IN HONOR OF THE PRINCE OF UDINE AND THE ITALIAN WAR MISSION TO THE UNITED STATES ON THE LAST MORNING OF THEIR OFFICIAL VISIT TO THE CITY. MORE THAN 10,000 PEOPLE ASSEMBLING FOR THE CELEBRATION

(Times Photo Service.)

WOMEN RED CROSS DRIVERS SEE THEIR FIRST ACTIVE WAR DUTY.

They Are Mrs. William Colby Rucker and Mrs. M. R. Blumenberg of Washington, Who Are Receiving in Their Car a Soldier Seized With Illness in a Camp "Somewhere in Virginia."

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

PRINCE UDINE, HEADING THE ITALIAN WAR MISSION, LEAVING THE GARIBALDI MEMORIAL ON STATEN ISLAND, SURROUNDED BY A GREAT CROWD OF FORMER ITALIANS, EAGER TO SHAKE HIS HAND AND CHEER THEMSELVES HOARSE IN HIS HONOR.

The Prince Can Be Seen Passing Through the Gate. (Times Photo Service.)

MME. FRANCES ALDA of the Metropolitan Opera Company Singing "The Star-Spangled Banner" at the Celebration in Honor of the Italian War Mission Held in the City College Stadium. (© International Film Service.)

UNITED STATES ARMY TRENCH DIGGER IN OPERATION, NOT IN FRANCE, BUT AT QUANTICO, ON THE POTOMAC RIVER IN VIRGINIA, WHERE A CANTONMENT FOR THE TRAINING OF MEN RAISED BY THE SELECTIVE DRAFT LAW IS BEING PREPARED.

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

BARON MONCHEUR OF THE BELGIAN WAR MISSION, SPEAKING AT THE TOMB OF WASHINGTON ON LAST SUNDAY, WHEN THE BELGIAN AND RUSSIAN MISSIONS, AS GUESTS OF SECRETARIES LANSING AND DANIELS, MADE A PILGRIMAGE TO MOUNT VERNON. Secretary Lansing Can Be Seen on the Left, Just Behind Baron Moncheur, and Ambassador Boris Bakhmetieff of Russia on the Right, Near Secretary Daniels. (Paul Thompson.)

THE PRINCE OF UDINE SHAKING HANDS WITH EACH MEMBER OF THE "SONS OF ITALY" WHO HAD STREWN WITH ROSES HIS PATH TO THE GARIBALDI MEMORIAL. (Times Photo Service.)