

GENERAL JOHN J. PERSHING, ON HIS ARRIVAL IN LIVERPOOL, INSPECTING HIS BRITISH GUARD OF HONOR, DRAWN UP ON THE DOCK TO RECEIVE HIM. General Pershing is Accompanied by General Pitcairn Campbell, Representing the British War Office. (© Central News Photo Service.)

THE WORLD'S FIRST AERIAL FIRE FIGHTING COMPANY. It Is Attached to the Fire Department of San Diego, Cal., and Is Equipped With Two One-hundred Horse-Power Airplanes as Well as Several Large Chemical Extinguishers. The Men Expect to Do Important Service Where Fires Break Out in Outlying Sections of the City and Suburbs. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

Gen. Pershing and Staff, Which Accompanied Him to the Front, on Their Arrival in Liverpool. In the Group, Seated, Left to Right, Are: Major James G. Harbord, Gen. Pershing, Col. Benjamin Alvord, Col. Andrew Brewster; Standing, Col. M. W. Ireland, Col. Harry Taylor, Major T. F. Todd, Col. D. E. McCarthy, Col. W. A. Bethel, Col. Edgar Russell, Lieut. Col. C. C. Williams, and Capt. N. E. Margetts, F. A.

HADLEY HOODWINK, Brookwood Kennels, Blue Ribbon Winner Among Sealyhams at the Westchester Kennel Club Show. (Edwin Levick.)

NEW JERSEY NATIONAL GUARD TROOPS ENGAGING IN A SKIRMISH DURING WAR GAMES AT CAMP EDGE, SEA GIRT, N. J. (© International Film Service.)

SQUADRON A OF THE UNITED STATES SCHOOL OF MILITARY AVIATION AT CORNELL UNIVERSITY, CAPT. H. DAVISON COMMANDING, EXAMINING THE MECHANISM OF ONE OF THEIR AIRPLANES. The Class Here Shown Will be the First to be Graduated From the Cornell School. (White Studio.)

