

IT'S CHOP, CHOP, ALL DAY LONG WITH THESE GIRLS OF THE WOMEN'S AGRICULTURAL CAMP ON THEIR WAR FARM AT MT. KISCO, N. Y.

This Farmerette Unit Is Composed of a Group of Trade Union Girls, a Group of College Girls, Three Pupil Directors, an Agricultural Expert, a Chauffeur and a Doctor, All Women, Operating Under Dean Virginia Gildersleeve's Subcommittee on Agriculture of the Mayor's Committee of Women on National Defense. The Girls Live in an Old Farm House Dating Back to Revolutionary Days.

(© International Film Service.)

MT. KISCO GIRL FARMERS HAVING LUNCH IN THE SHADE.

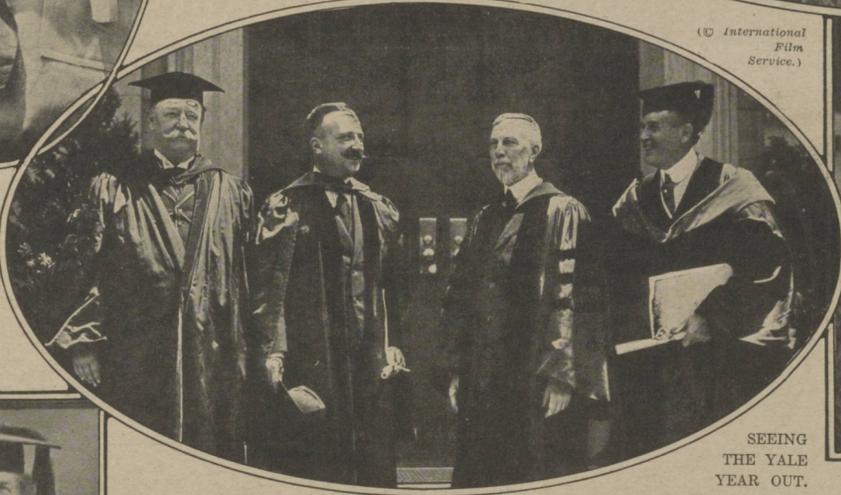

(© International Film Service.)

MISS ELEANOR PUTZKI, "THE BEST GIRL SCOUT IN AMERICA."

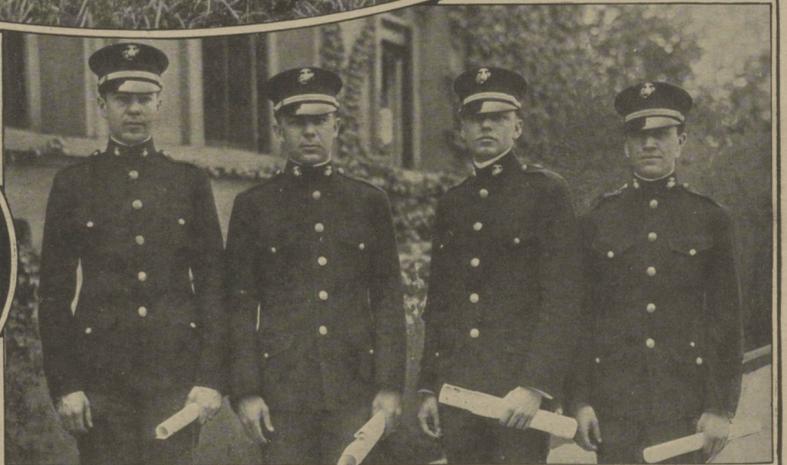

Having Won Twenty-five Merit Badges for Superiority in the Various Girl Scout Activities, Ten Days Ago She Was Presented by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson With the Gold Eaglet, the Highest Honor of the Organization, Which She Had the Additional Honor of Being the First to Receive.

(© Harris & Ewing, from Paul Thompson.)

SEEING THE YALE YEAR OUT.

Left to Right, They Are: Former President William Howard Taft, M. Andre Tardieu, the French High Commissioner; President Arthur Twining Hadley of Yale, and Myron T. Herrick, Former Ambassador to France, on Whom and on M. Tardieu Yale Conferred the Degree of Doctor of Laws. (Times Photo Service.)

LEADERS OF YALE COLLEGE LIFE, EACH WITH HIS DIPLOMA OF GRADUATION AND EACH WEARING THE UNIFORM OF A LIEUTENANT IN THE UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS. They Are, Left to Right: Samuel W. Meek, Jr., Editor of Yale News; Harry W. Le Gore, Captain of the Baseball Team; John W. Overton, Champion American Cross Country Runner, and S. W. Burke, President of the Yale Dramatic Association. (Times Photo Service.)

IGNACE JAN PADEREWSKI, THE PIANIST, AT YALE JUST AFTER RECEIVING THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MUSIC. (Times Photo Service.)

SCENE AT THE WEDDING AT MEUDON, FRANCE, OF AUGUSTE RODIN, THE FAMOUS FRENCH SCULPTOR, AND ROSE BEURRE, LONG HIS MODEL AND COMPANION. The Wedding Took Place on Jan. 29 Last, When Rodin Was 76 and His Bride 72. Two Weeks Later Mme. Rodin Was Dead, and Not Until Within the Last Month Would Rodin Consent to the Publication of the Photograph Taken of the Little Wedding Party. In the Group, Left to Right, Are: M. Peytel, President of the Bank d'Algerie; Clementel, Member of the French Cabinet; Auguste Rodin, Jr., Rodin, Dalimier, (Behind Rodin,) Member of the French Cabinet; Mme. Rodin, M. Beneditte, Curator of the Musee du Luxembourg, and M. Weiler. (Photo by Chaumoff, from Underwood & Underwood.)