

MISS HELEN TAFT,
New Dean of Bryn Mawr College and Daughter of Major General William Howard Taft, Former President,
Starting Out for the Day's Work on the Bryn Mawr College Farm.
(Amer. Press Assn.)

GIRL
WORKER IN THE ERIE RAIL-WAY YARDS IN JERSEY
CITY WHO HAS RE-LEASED A MAN FOR SERVICE AT THE FRONT.

FARMERETTES AND A FEW MEN HELPERS AT WORK AMONG THE ONIONS
AT THE NEW YORK AGRI-CULTURAL SCHOOL, FARMINGDALE, LONG ISLAND.
(© American Press Assn.)

(© American Press Assn.)

A PRIZE-WINNING GIRL LAND WORKER
Among the Nearly 350 Who Recently Took Part in the Girls' Farm Competition
Near London. She is Shown Wearing a Man's Complete Working
Costume, Including Suspenders
(© International Film Service.)

MISS JEAN-NETTE
RANKIN of Montana, the Country's First and Only Congresswoman, Making Her First Formal Speech Before Congress, in Which
She Urged Legislation Empowering
the President to Seize and Operate the Copper Mines
of Her State and Arizona
on Account of Recent Labor Troubles.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

GIRL WORKERS LOADING A CAR WITH LUMBER IN THE NORTHERN PACIFIC YARDS AT ST. PAUL, MINN.
(Paul Thompson.)

FARMERETTE AT FARMINGDALE SEEKS SHELTER FROM THE SUN BEHIND A WAGON LOAD OF HAY.
(© American Press Assn.)

THE DUTCH SAIL ONCE MORE THE WATERS OF HENRY HUDSON
The Recent Race, in Which Most of the Small Boats of the Nearly Thirty Dutch Ships Anchored in the Hudson Took Part, and Which, for the Time Being, Transformed the River into a Zuyder Zee, Is Here Shown at Its Height.
(© American Press Assn.)