

KAISER WILLIAM II, GERMAN EMPEROR, WITH MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF AND OF THE IMPERIAL PARTY, VISITING THE OIL WELLS OF RUMANIA, DESTROYED BY THE RETREATING RUMANIANS, NOW RESTORED TO FULL OPERATION BY THE GERMANS.

So Far as Known This Is the First Photograph of the Kaiser to Reach This Country Since the British Authorities Excluded German Photographs and Propaganda from the Mails. It Shows the Kaiser Much Older Appearing Than Photographs Taken Early in the War, and That He Continues to Wear a Band of Mourning on His Undeveloped Left Arm.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

EMPEROR CHARLES OF AUSTRIA REVIEWING HIS TROOPS AT CZERNOWITZ, CAPITAL OF BUKOWINA, DURING THE CEREMONIES COMPLEMENTING HIS OFFICERS FOR RECENT GALLANTRY OF ACTION. This Is One of the First Photographs of the New Ruler of Austria-Hungary to Reach This Country in Many Months.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

SMALLEST MAN IN THE CANADIAN OVERSEAS ARMY IN FRANCE. He Enlisted in November, 1914, at Vancouver, B. C., and Has Seen Active Service Ever Since. Before Enlisting He Was a Bugler.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)

MODERN CATAPULT, INVENTED BY THE GERMANS AND CAPABLE OF THROWING A FRENCH BOMB WEIGHING 150 POUNDS, RECENTLY CAPTURED BY THE FRENCH IN THE OISE SECTOR.
(Pictorial Press.)

MRS. FRANCIS B. SAYRE AND HER SON, FRANCIS WOODROW SAYRE, PRESIDENT WILSON'S FIRST GRANDCHILD. From a Recent Photograph.
(© Boyer Studio.)

A NEW AIR GUN NOW USED BY THE FRENCH FOR DISCHARGING TRENCH TORPEDOES. So Far as Known This Is the First Picture of Any Gun of This Kind to Reach This Country.
(© International Film Service.)

NEW TYPE OF FRENCH ANTI-AIRCRAFT MOTOR TRUCK, SHOWING AN IMMENSE GASOLINE TANK AT THE BACK, GIVING THE MACHINE A CRUISING RADIUS OF HUNDREDS OF MILES.
(© International Film Service.)