

ARTHUR HAYS SULZBERGER, SECOND LIEUTENANT, FIELD ARTILLERY, O. R. C., U. S. A.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

JOSEPH C. STEHLIN, Nineteen Years Old, of Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn, Who Is Said to be the Youngest American Now Flying in France. He Has Already Brought Down Two German Airplanes, Feats Which Have Earned Him Two Palms on His French War Cross.
(© International Film Service.)

AUGUSTE RODIN, FAMOUS FRENCH SCULPTOR, WHO DIED A WEEK AGO AT HIS HOME AT MEUDON, NEAR PARIS.
(Gertrude Kasebier.)

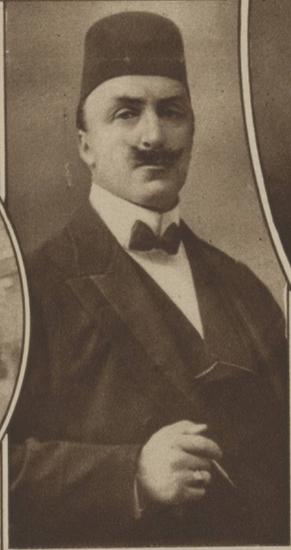

MISS EMMA DAUS, Daughter of the Late Rudolphe L. Daus, Architect of New York and Paris, to Whom Has Been Awarded the French Honor Medal for Her Relief Work in France, Chiefly Among Blind Soldiers and at the American Ambulance in Neuilly.
(© International Film Service.)

MRS. ARTHUR HAYS SULZBERGER, FORMERLY MISS IPHIGENE BERTHA OCHS, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. ADOLPH S. OCHS, MARRIED ON NOVEMBER 17 LAST.
(The Misses Selby.)

A NEW SIGN APPEARS ON THE BOULEVARDS OF PARIS, THE Y. M. C. A. Having Plastered the City with Markers for the Direction of American Soldiers in the French Capital.
(Int. Film Service.)

AHMED FOUAD PASHA, New Khedive of Egypt, Who Has Succeeded His Brother, the Late Khedive Houssein-Kemil.
(© International Film Service.)

SIGNOR CAPRONI, Inventor of the Great Triplanes Which Bear His Name, a Visitor to Paris, Where He Predicted That It Would Not Be Long Before Airplanes Would Be Constructed Capable of Carrying 150 People.
(© International Film Service.)

(© International Film Service.)

PARIS FLOWER VENDOR PINNING A BOUTONNIERE ON THE BREAST OF AN AMERICAN SOLDIER AS A TRIBUTE FROM HERSELF.

THE FORMER KING AND QUEEN OF GREECE, WITH THEIR SONS AND DAUGHTERS, IN THE GARDEN OF THEIR NEW HOME, THE VILLA WEHRLI, ON THE DOLDER IN ZURICH, SWITZERLAND, WHERE THEY HAVE LIVED SINCE LAST SEPTEMBER. Seated, Left to Right, Are: Prince George, Former Crown Prince, the Former Queen Sophia, the German Emperor's Sister, Ex-King Constantine I. of the Hellenes, and the Little Princess Catherine; Standing, Left to Right, Are: Princess Helen, Prince Paul, and Princess Irene.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)