The Genuine Heath Jacket

A smart, loose-fitting, knit vest for men, following lines of rough-made garments favored by English sportsmen.

The Heath Jacket is a bit of Bond Street set down in America—a duplication of the garment the Englishman considers an indispensable part of his out-door wardrobe. It is made for service from beautiful heather yarn—rugged—loose fitting—gives warmth without weight. The Heath Jacket is for those who motor, golf, sail, shoot, fish, hunt, camp or tramp. It appeals to any business-man whose work or play takes him outdoors and who wants to be comfortable without the bother of a "great" coat. Cut extra long, it protects the kidneys and wards off the colds that are apt to come from chills following exercise. In many households the Heath Jacket is already an indispensable part of the motor wardrobe, hunting outfit and golf equipment. The Heath Jacket will last a lifetime—yet, being without bulk, it slips easily into golf-bag, under the seat of the car or into any odd corner of your luggage. At the better shops $7.50 to $8.50 in dark oxford and the following heathers:—golden brown—wine, dark green and black tinge—green mix (Lovett heather)—red and light blue mix—light blue.
