

SCENE FROM "FOLLOWING THE STAR," the Christmas Pageant Given by the International Institute for Foreign-Born Women, a Branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, at the Washington Irving High School, the Parts Being Taken by an Immigrant Italian Mother, Her Child, and Two Greek Girls.

BRITISH AIRMEN EXAMINING THE MOTOR OF ONE OF THE TWO GERMAN GOTHAS RECENTLY BROUGHT DOWN DURING A RAID ON LONDON.
(Farrington Photo Co.)

THE SHOT-RIDDLED STANDARDS OF THE FRENCH CHASSEURS, DECORATED AFTER THE RECENT BATTLE OF FLANDERS BY GENERAL PETAIN, THE FRENCH COMMANDER IN CHIEF.
(French Pictorial Service.)

MAYOR AND OTHER CITY OFFICIALS OF RHEIMS, WITH THEIR WIVES, BEFORE THE RHEIMS CITY HALL.

For the Last Two Years the Entire Population Has Lived in the Network of Wine Cellars Under the City, No One Appearing on the Streets Without a Gas Mask and at Imminent Risk of His Life from German Shell Fire.
(French Pictorial Service.)

HOMES OF THE RED CROSS STRETCHER BEARERS, BUILT BY THEM IN THE WOODS OF HAUTE BATHS.
(French Pictorial Service.)

MRS. HAROLD C. BRADLEY, Daughter of Charles R. Crane of Chicago, and a Graduate in Agriculture, at Work in One of the Fields of Her Farm Near Madison, Wisconsin.

FIELD PIECES OF HEAVY CALIBRE, CAPTURED FROM THE GERMANS BY FRENCH TROOPS DURING THE RECENT DRIVE ON THE AISNE.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

FRENCH CIVILIANS, WHO HAVE RECENTLY RETURNED TO ONE OF THE LIBERATED DISTRICTS NEAR NANCY, SEARCHING AMID THE RUINS OF THEIR FORMER HOMES FOR IMPORTANT PAPERS AND VALUABLES.
(French Pictorial Service.)