

MEN, WOMEN, AND CHILDREN OF NOVELLES, IN THE HEART OF THE BATTLEFIELD BEFORE CAMBRAI, GLAD TO LEAVE THEIR HOMES FOR SAFETY IN THE FRENCH INTERIOR AFTER THREE YEARS OF GERMAN RULE, THEIR TOWN HAVING BEEN RECAPTURED BY THE BRITISH AND CERTAIN TO BECOME THE SCENE AGAIN OF HEAVY FIGHTING. The Photograph Recalls the Early Days of the War When Throngs of Belgian Noncombatants Were Fleeting from Their Homes in the Face of the German Tidal Wave. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

TOMMY ATKINS AND HIS LITTLE FRENCH "CAPTIVE," RESCUED BY HIM WHEN THE BRITISH TOOK MASNIERES. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

COUNTESS SOPHIE PANIN, THE WORLD'S FIRST MINISTER OF STATE. She Has Just Been Appointed Assistant Minister of Social Tutelage in the New Russian Government, Charged with Administering the Charitable and Social Institutions of the Country. (Bain News Service.)

GERMAN AIRPLANE BROUGHT DOWN ON THE CAMBRAI FRONT AT A POINT WHICH, A FEW WEEKS AGO, WAS A CONSIDERABLE DISTANCE BEHIND THE GERMAN LINES. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS ESTHER CLEVELAND, Daughter of Mrs. Thomas J. Preston, Jr., and the Late President Grover Cleveland, Whose Engagement to Captain Alfred Bosanquet, of the British Coldstream Guards, Has Been Announced. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

BRITISH CAVALRY GUARD OF AN AMMUNITION TRANSPORT TRAIN, ON ITS WAY TO THE FRONT, PAUSES TO WATER THE HORSES IN A STREAM RUNNING THROUGH A RECAPTURED VILLAGE IN WESTERN FRANCE. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

COUNT GEORGE F. VON HERTLING, THE GERMAN CHANCELLOR, LEAVING THE FIRST SESSION OF THE REICHSTAG AFTER SUCCEEDING DR. GEORG MICHAELIS. So Far as Known, This Is the First Photograph of Count von Hertling, Taken Since He Was Made Chancellor, to Reach This Country. (© Theo. Moussault.)

KING ALBERT I. OF THE BELGIANS REVIEWING A BRITISH GUARDS DIVISION ON THE BELGIAN FRONT. (Underwood & Underwood.)