

HIS BRITISH MAJESTY'S LAND BATTLESHIP, THE LUSITANIA,
WAITING BEFORE CAMBRAI, TO GO INTO ACTION.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

OFFICERS OF AN IRISH REGIMENT WEARING THEIR GERMAN TROPHIES
TAKEN IN A RECENT BATTLE IN FLANDERS.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

Company of French "Shock Troops," known to their comrades as "Soldats d'élite," and picked for their physical strength, courage, and high fighting qualities, gathered about their leader.

(French Pictorial Service.)

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF BRITISH SOLDIERS ADVANCING TOWARDS CAMBRAI, WHILE GERMAN PRISONERS OF WAR, UNDER GUARD, MOVE TO THE REAR.

In the background may be seen the famous slag heap which has changed hands many times with the varying fortunes of battle.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

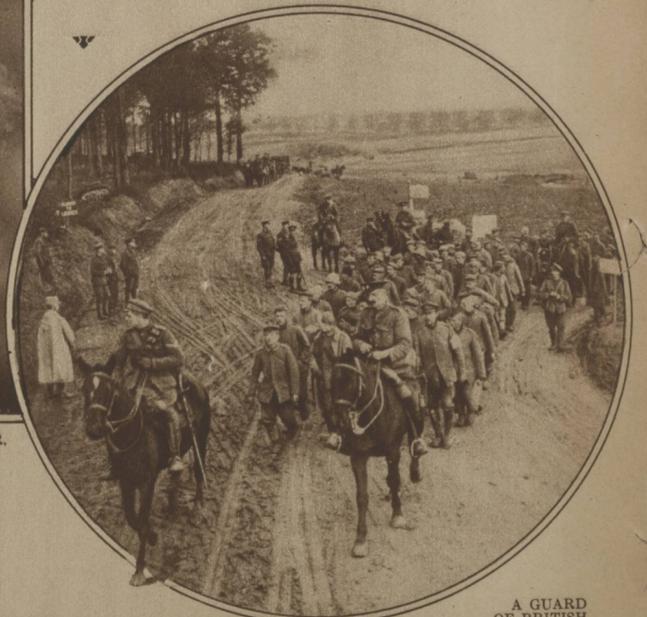

BRITISH TROOPS, AFTER A PERIOD OF SEVERE FIGHTING, ARE DRIVEN TO THE REAR FOR REST IN THE FAMILIAR LONDON BUSES.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS DOROTHY KEENE TAYLOR, GRANDDAUGHTER OF THE LATE JAS. R. KEENE, WHOSE ENGAGEMENT TO VALENTINO MOLINA, AN ARTIST, HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED.
(Aime Dupont.)

DR. FELIX CALONDER, WHO SUCCEEDS TO THE PRESIDENCY OF SWITZERLAND FOR 1918.
(International Film Service.)

A GUARD OF BRITISH CAVALRY BRINGING IN GERMAN PRISONERS IN LARGE BATCHES FOLLOWING THE FIGHTING AROUND BOURLON WOOD.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)