

FIFTY-SECOND REGIMENT OF FRENCH CHASSEURS, LED BY THEIR COMMANDER AND ACCOMPANIED BY ITALIAN OFFICERS, MARCHING THROUGH THE ITALIAN CITY OF VERONA ON THEIR WAY TO THE PIAVE FRONT TO ASSIST IN STEMMING THE AUSTRO-GERMAN FLOOD.

(French Pictorial Service.)

FRENCH ALPINE CHASSEURS, TO ITALY'S AID, PASSING THROUGH THE CITY OF BRESCIA ON THE VENETIAN PLAIN, BEHIND THE PRESENT ITALIAN BATTLE-FIELD.

(French Pictorial Service.)

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

BRITISH MONITORS OPERATING IN HOME WATERS AGAINST SUBMARINES, USING SAND BAGS AS BREASTWORKS FOR GUN CREWS.

ITALIAN GIRL RUSHES INTO A STREET OF BRESCIA TO BESTOW FLOWERS ON FRENCH SOLDIERS MARCHING THROUGH.

(French Pictorial Service.)

MISS HENRIETTA MARIPOSA HAYES, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hayes of New York. "Since the Chauffeur Has Gone to War, I Clean the Car."

(Aime Dupont.)

GERMAN SCOUT PLANE, FORCED BY ENGINE TROUBLE TO DESCEND WITHIN THE BRITISH LINES IN PALESTINE, IS CAPTURED BY BRITISH CAVALRY AND TOWED INTO CAMP.

(International Film Service.)

PROF. STOCKTON AXSON, Of Houston, Brother-in-law of President Wilson, who has been appointed Secretary General of the American Red Cross.

(© By Gladstone, Underwood & Underwood.)

PANORAMIC VIEW OF CAMP WADSWORTH, SPARTANBURG, S. C., WHERE PRACTICALLY ALL OF THE NEW YORK CITY NATIONAL GUARD IS IN TRAINING, BURIED BENEATH THE DEEPEST SNOW WHICH HAS FALLEN IN THAT SECTION OF THE "SUNNY SOUTH" IN MANY YEARS.

(Bert Lovett Forster.)

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including names like Lutzburg, St. Louis, Marne, Saarburg, and others, likely from a collection or publisher's mark.