

MUSICAL YANK ENTERTAINING A NUMBER OF HIS COMRADES WITH THE LATEST SONG HITS FROM BROADWAY INSIDE THE AMERICAN RED CROSS TENT AT BASE HOSPITAL NO. 5, AUTEUIL, FRANCE.

AMERICANS GOING FORWARD TOWARD THE GERMAN FRONTIER ENJOYING THE HOSPITALITY OF AN AMERICAN RED CROSS WAYSIDE CANTEEN.

THE FAMOUS MOLE OF ZEEBRUGGE, Showing, Near the Centre, the Gap Where It Was Bisected by a British Submarine Laden with Explosives and, in the Foreground, a Huge German Gun Dismantled by the Teutons Before Flight. (Underwood & Underwood.)

AMERICAN RED CROSS GIRLS SERVING COFFEE AND CAKES TO CONVALESCENT YANKS AT AUTEUIL.

FAY BAINTER, Who Is to Appear in a Christmas Opening of a New Play, "East Is West." (© Strauss-Peyton Studio.)

LOWLY CUCUMBERS GROWING ON THE GRAND STAIRWAY OF THE DOGES' PALACE, VENICE, LONG PROTECTED BY SANDBAGS AND LOOSE EARTH. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

COLUMNS IN THE FAMOUS TWELFTH CENTURY CHURCH OF ST. QUENTIN, from Which the Germans Removed Sections for the Insertion of High Explosives, with Which to Destroy the Edifice. (French Pictorial Service.)