

THE HEAD OF THE COLUMN OF GERMAN BATTLESHIPS, BATTLE CRUISERS, AND TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYERS

Arriving Off the Firth of Forth, Scotland, to Surrender to the British Grand and Allied Fleets, as Seen from a British Naval Airship. This and Accompanying Photographs Are the First, and, So Far as Known, the Only British Royal Air Official Photographs of the Surrender of the German Fleet to be Received in This Country.

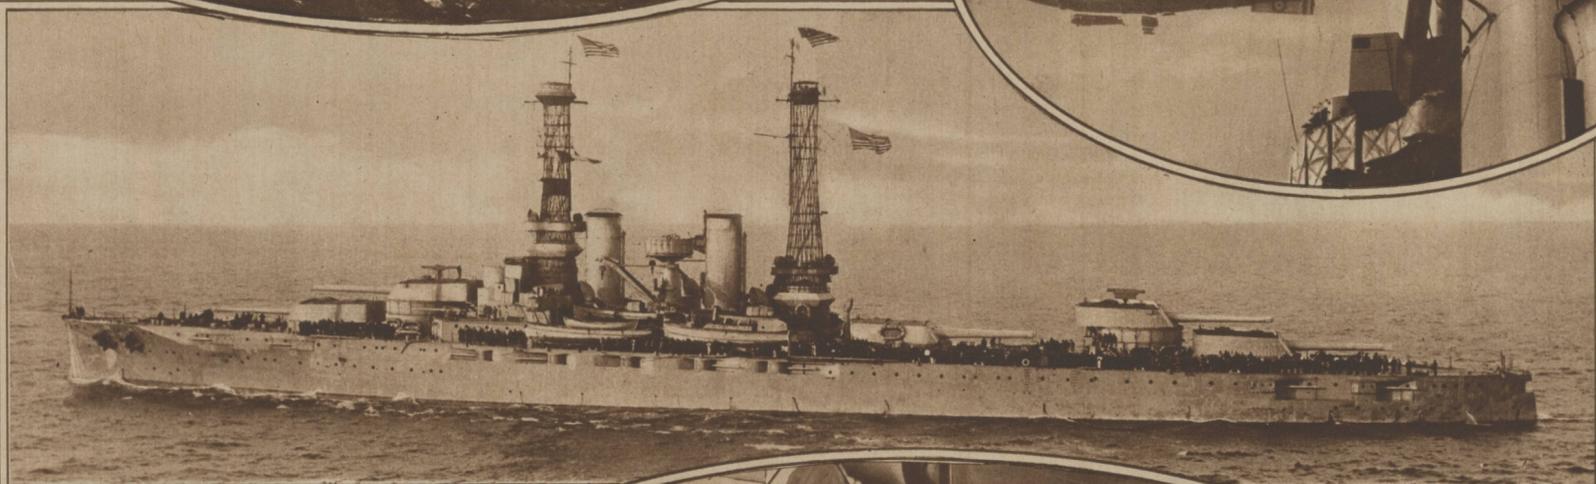

(Photos © by Central News Service.)

THE MOST POWERFUL GERMAN WARSHIP, FLAGSHIP OF THE SURRENDERED FLEET, AS SEEN FROM HALF A MILE IN THE AIR.

BRITISH NAVAL AIRSHIP, FROM WHICH THE PHOTOGRAPHS WERE TAKEN, PASSING NEAR THE MAINMAST OF THE QUEEN ELIZABETH.

THE U. S. S. BATTLESHIP NEW YORK, OF THE AMERICAN OVERSEAS FLEET WHICH PARTICIPATED IN THE SURRENDER, PASSING THE BRITISH FLAGSHIP QUEEN ELIZABETH.

TO GUARD AGAINST TREACHERY, THE GUN CREWS ON THE BRITISH AND ALLIED WARSHIPS, FULLY EQUIPPED WITH GAS MASKS, REMAINED NEAR THEIR GUNS.

BRITISH GRAND FLEET, AS SEEN FROM THE DECK OF THE QUEEN ELIZABETH, PROCEEDING UNDER FULL STEAM TO THE SCENE OF THE SURRENDER.

THE BRITISH GRAND FLEET, THE QUEEN ELIZABETH, ADMIRAL BEATTY'S FLAGSHIP, LEADING, STEAMING OUT TO MEET THE GERMAN WARSHIPS TO BE SURRENDERED.