

GERMANY'S "CHAIN-GANG" IN HER EAST AFRICAN COLONY. These Men Were Forced to Work in the Fields, Chained Together by the Necks, Under Armed Guards. It Is Because of Such Treatment That the Allies Have Opposed the Return of These Colonies to the Germans.
(Paul Thompson.)

SCENE AT LANDAU, BAVARIA, DURING THE RECENT GERMAN ELECTION, WHEN WOMEN PARTICIPATED FOR THE FIRST TIME.
(© French Pictorial Service.)

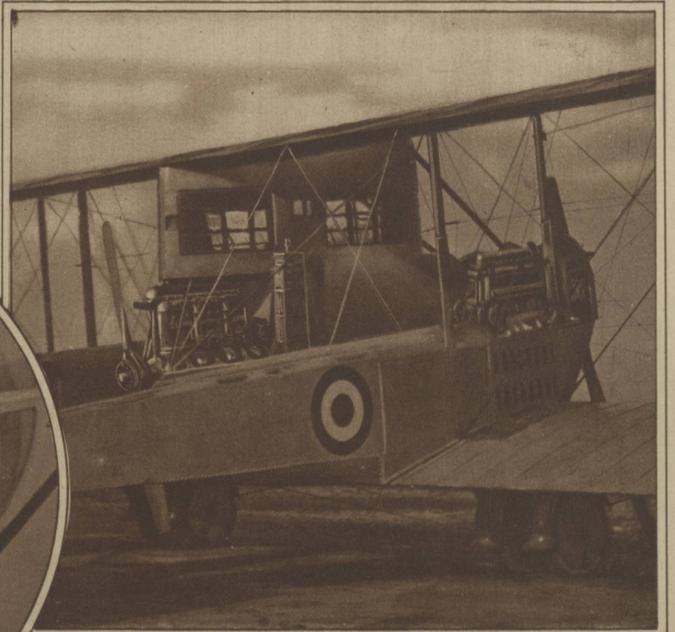

BRITISH TROOPS ARRIVE IN VIENNA, CONVOYING THE FIRST FOOD TRAIN FROM ITALY FOR THE RELIEF OF THE AUSTRIAN CAPITAL. They Are Men of the Royal Warwickshire Regiment, and So Far as Known This Is the First Photograph to Reach This Country Showing Allied Troops in an Enemy Capital.
(Paul Thompson.)

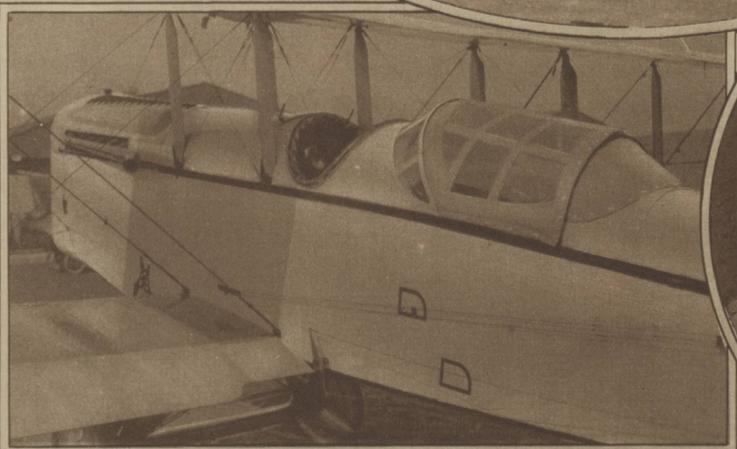

THE SEDAN AIRPLANE, THE WORLD'S MOST LUXURIOUS CAR FOR TRAVEL THROUGH THE AIR.

It Is Covered with Enamel Throughout, Has a Completely Inclosed Body with Four Windows, Electric Lights, Upholstered Swivel Chairs, a Card or Dining Table, and Rugs on the Floor. It Was Designed by the Dayton-Wright Airplane Company.

(Mayfield.)

THE NEW CAPRONI EXPRESS, with Capacity for Eleven Passengers and Three Pilots, Designed for the Service Between Rome and Milan.
(© International Film Service.)

"THE HONEYMOON EXPRESS," with Canopy-Covered Bridal Compartment, Having Upholstered Body, Upholstered Seats, Built-In Mahogany Vanity and Lunch Boxes, and a Plate Mirror. Its Cost Ranges from $15,000 to $20,000. L. C. Luneke of the Dayton-Wright Company Is the Designer.
(Mayfield.)

INTERIOR OF "THE HONEYMOON EXPRESS."
(Mayfield.)