

BELGIAN MEN AND WOMEN, WHO HAD BEEN DEPORTED INTO GERMANY, ARRIVING AT GHENT ON THEIR RETURN HOME. THE BELGIAN OFFICIALS EXAMINING THEIR PAPERS. The German Train on Which They Came Can Be Seen in the Distance. (© Western Newspaper Union.)

VANGUARD OF THE 27TH REACHES NEW YORK TO PREPARE FOR THE HOMECOMING OF NEW YORK STATE'S NATIONAL GUARD DIVISION.

In the Group, Left to Right, Sitting, Are: Major Charles A. MacArthur, Captain Jerome F. Langer, Lieutenant Eugene L. Mallaney, Lieut. Col. J. Leslie Kincaid, Lieut. Col. William T. Starr, and Lieutenant Edward M. McCabe; Standing, Left to Right: Captain James S. Wadsworth, Lieutenant F. V. Jackson, Major W. E. Lane, Jr., Captain Chester P. Jones, and Captain J. B. Motley.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

LIEUTENANT FRANCIS W. MASON, of the 162nd Infantry, Who Went Overseas a Private and Now Returns a Commissioned Officer and a Winner of the French War Cross.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE "BEAUTY QUARTET" OF THE 27TH DIVISION, at the Divisional Headquarters in France, Singing the Song Hits of Broadway for the Entertainment of Their Comrades, "Jack" Roche Assisting.

(International Film Service.)

"THE MAN, BROOK, SHEEP, MILKMAID," One of the Most Important Gainsboroughs in This Country, Recently Sold Through the Scott & Fowles Gallery to the Worcester Museum for More Than $75,000.

MAYOR OLE HANSON, THE MAN WHO CRUSHED THE SEATTLE STRIKE AND BOLSHEVIST UPRISING, MRS. HANSON, AND THEIR NINE CHILDREN.

(© Bushnell Studio.)

"FIGHTING CHAPLAIN" FRANCIS A. KELLEY, Awarded the American Distinguished Service Cross for Bravery Under Fire. (© Western Newspaper Union.)

INTERIOR OF THE FRENCH CHAR D'ASSAUT, OR BABY TANK, Showing in the Background the Driver's Seat, with a Broad Strap in Front, and, in the Foreground, the Two Foot Controls. So Far as Known This Is the First Photograph of the Interior of One of These Tanks to Be Released by the French Government. (© Keystone View Company.)