

ENGLISH WAR BRIDES, WEDDED TO AMERICAN SOLDIERS AND SAILORS ABROAD, ARRIVING ON THE AMERICAN TRANSPORT PLATTSBURG.

(Times Photo Service.)

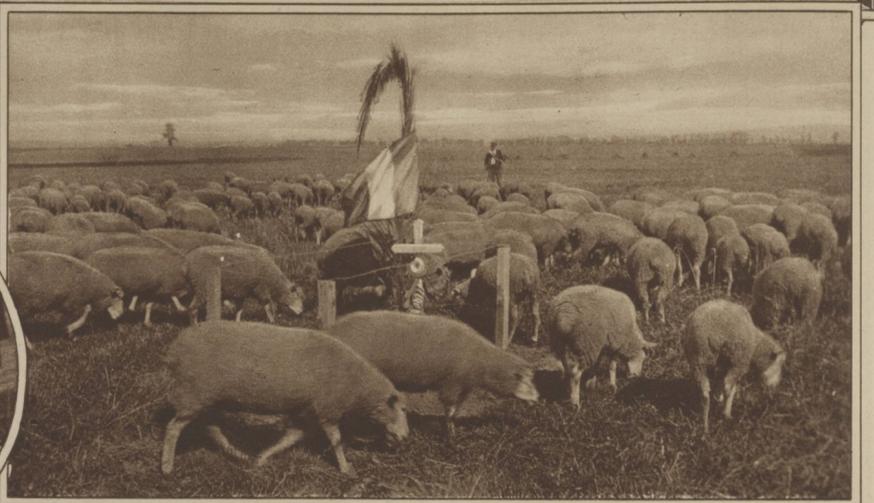

THE 165TH INFANTRY, FORMERLY THE OLD 69TH, NEW YORK, NOW OF THE RAINBOW DIVISION, AT DAILY DRILL ALONG THE BANKS OF THE RHINE, NEAR COBLENZ.

THE FRENCH "WATCH ON THE RHINE": A SCENE NEAR DUESSELDORF.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

AN EARLY SPRING SCENE ON THE FAMOUS BATTLEFIELD OF THE MARNE.

(Roystone View Company.)

JESSE T. TEAGARDEN, of the 178d Aero Squadron Band, Arriving in New York from France, with His Famous Kaiser Drum.

(Edwin Levick.)

CAPTAIN MAX FOSTER

of the 312th Infantry, Homecoming from the War, with His English Bride.

(Times Photo Service.)

A REAL UNCLE REMUS TELLING NEW STORIES OF "BRER FOX" AND "BRER RABBIT" AT PINEHURST, N. C. Seated Beside the Old Man's Cabin, with Ears and Eyes Drinking in Every Word and Gesture, Are, Left to Right: Dickerson Bishop of Pinehurst, Virginia Clemson of New York, Sigourney Hurd of Pittsburg, Laura Muffer, Akron, Ohio, and "Jack" Rogers, Plainfield, N. J.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)