BARON DE HIRSCH INTERVIEWED.

THE ORIGIN AND NATURE OF HIS MUNIFICENCE FOR THE BENEFIT OF POOR JEWS. [BY THE COMMERCIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.]

MONTE CARLO, Feb. 18, 1891.—I had the pleasure of being received by Baron de Hirsch at the Villa Carlotta, Monte Carlo, when he kindly gave me the following interesting particulars respecting his numerous munificent gifts to the poor:—

Baron de Hirsch's whole affections were centered in his only child, Baron Lucien de Hirsch, who died some few years ago, after a very short illness. This cruel affliction caused him to retire from all active business.

apart from the evicted tenants was heavily overdrawn. Mr. James F. Xavier O'Brien and Mr. J. J. Clancy's checks were dishonored, though it is evident that Mr. O'Brien believed that the money was devoted to the relief of the tenants only.

THE M'CARTHY SITUATION. In an interview to-day Justin M'Carthy declared that the story of a liberal grant of £5,000 for his party was an impudent fabrication; that none such was ever suggested, and if offered would not be accepted.

Other M'Carthyites on being interviewed said several members of the party had already furnished personal guarantees to provide for immediate necessities pending arrangements to obtain resources for the electoral campaign.

Further grants ought to be distributed under the control of agencies commanding the confidence of all parties. If Mr. O'Brien was free the M'Carthyites would not hesitate to intrust him absolutely to distribute; meantime they were willing that Mr. M'Carthy should place the whole of the funds in Paris at the disposal of properly recognized distributors.

IRISH POLITICAL NOTES. DUBLIN, Feb. 18, 1891.—The Express to-day says that Ireland is committed to the strife of two powerful parties, a state of affairs not seen before since the time of civil war.

Twenty-five thousand dollars, the first instalment of the liberal grant to the M'Carthyites, has been deposited in checks signed by Mr. Morley and Mr. M'Carthy.

Mr. Michael Davitt, who has been visiting the west coast of Ireland, reports that the inhabitants of that coast are badly in need of seed.

Mr. Timothy Harrington, M. P., is bringing a suit to recover $5,000 damages against the publisher of the Inexpressible. The ground for this action is contained in a statement published by that paper questioning the disposition made of the evicted tenants' fund in Mr. Harrington's hands.

CONFIDENCE IN PARNELL. QUEBEC, Feb. 18, 1891.—An exceedingly stormy meeting of the Quebec branch of the Irish National League has just been held here over a motion of confidence in Mr. Parnell, which the chairman refused to put to the meeting.

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD WRECK. LONDON, Feb. 18, 1891.—A serious accident, which may be attended by considerable loss of life, occurred this evening at the Praed Street Junction of the Metropolitan Underground Railway.

THAT GAME OF BACCARAT. LONDON, Feb. 18, 1891.—It is announced that Prince Albert Victor of Wales will visit Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson's house at Doncaster, where the recent scandal occurred.

A M'KINLEY FAILURE. LONDON, Feb. 18, 1891.—James Wilson & Sons, builders of Bradford, have failed, with liabilities amounting to £20,000. The failure is attributed chiefly to the new United States tariff law killing cash trade in packing cases for woodens sent to America.

EMPRESS FREDERICK IN PARIS. SHE IS SAID TO BE GOING TO PARIS AND TROUBLE IS FEARED. PARIS, Feb. 18, 1891.—The Figaro to-day says that the Empress Frederick of Germany is upon the point of visiting Paris in order to use her personal influence with French artists so as to induce them to take part in the art exhibition to be held in Berlin.

CLASHING IRISH FACTIONS. THE FINANCIAL SITUATION STRAINED AND FEARS ABROAD THAT STRIFE MAY ENSUE. LONDON, Feb. 18, 1891.—A financial dispute between the M'Carthyites and the Parnellite factions of the Irish Parliamentary party is likely to be much in evidence during the coming struggle.

BISMARCK'S PATRIOTISM. THE EX-CHANCELLOR CHARGES CURRENT RUMORS TO HIS POLITICAL ENEMIES. LONDON, Feb. 18, 1891.—The Pall Mall Gazette this evening publishes a despatch from his Berlin correspondent stating that Prince Bismarck is convinced that the reports published as to the Emperor's "injurious opinion" of himself are untrue and are inventions of his Bismarck's enemies.

BISMARCK TAKING PRECAUTIONS. PARIS, Feb. 18, 1891.—The Figaro to-day says that Prince Bismarck has sent four boxes filled with important documents to London. The Figaro adds that the ex-Chancellor took this action in view of the possibility of being prosecuted for his utterances and alleged utterances upon public affairs.

OUTLINING ITALY'S POLICY. SUGGESTIONS CONCERNING THE DREIBUND AND THE VATICAN QUESTION. [BY CABLE TO THE HERALD.]

ROME, Feb. 18, 1891.—Count Jacini, a Senator, who was a colleague of Cavour and Ricasoli, in an article in the Nuova Antologia, a leading review, outlines the national conservative programme as follows:—An unaggressive foreign policy, administrative decentralization, the territorial question in Rome to be a matter of home policy, independence of the Italian people to be settled by international neutralization of any locality in which the Pope may elect to dwell.

HEBREW BALL IN TURKEY. SPECIAL HONORS PAID TO THE UNITED STATES DIPLOMATIC REPRESENTATIVE. [BY CABLE TO THE HERALD.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 18, 1891.—A ball held here last night for the benefit of the Hebrew Hospital, under the patronage of Mrs. Hirsch, the wife of the United States Minister, Mr. S. Hirsch, was a decided and great success socially and financially, a large sum of money being realized for the hospital.

PROGRESS OF ELECTRICITY. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 18, 1891.—This was Pioneer's Day in the Electrical Convention. There were reminiscences of the early days of electricity by President Perry, Professor Eliza Thomson, J. A. Lockwood and others.

THE WINONA PAPER FAILURE. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Feb. 18, 1891.—The committee appointed by the creditors to examine into the financial condition of the crippled Winona Paper Company, of Holyoke, reported to-day as follows:—

business for the past three years of $143,066. The banks most deeply concerned have offered the creditors representing $750,000 unsecured liabilities a compromise of forty cents on the dollar, cash, in thirty days, in order to save what they can.

CHARGES OF TREASON DENIED. SIR JOHN MACDONALD'S ACCUSATIONS AGAINST THE CANADIAN LIBERALS FALL FLAT. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.]

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18, 1891.—Edward Farrer, editor of the Globe, replies to the Premier's charges of treason in that paper to-day. He says the facts are briefly these:—Last summer an American friend, not in politics, asked for certain information regarding the North Atlantic fishery question, and also asked him to state, from an American point of view, what line should be taken to bring about closer relations.

THE LYONING. The two men were then taken to a big oak opposite Judge Ashby's residence. A few minutes respite was given them, Kelly remaining quiet while the terrified negro kept up his yelling mingled with praying.

SIoux CHIEFS TALK WAR.

DISGUSTED WITH THEIR TREATMENT AT WASHINGTON, THEY THREATEN TO FIGHT. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 18, 1891.—American Horse, an Ojibwa Sioux, one of the signers of the Sioux treaty ceding the reservation, who has just returned from Washington, swears that his people will go on the war path in the spring.

I had quite a talk with American Horse to-day and he said frankly that in the spring, just as soon as he got fonder enough for their horses, they intended going on the war path. American Horse further said that after Secretary Noble had treated the Sioux and his companions so badly he talked to the Secretary very plainly, but the interpreter didn't tell Noble what he said.

Medicine Bull, White Ghost and Mad Bear, all Braves, were among the Sioux who were very morose and said plainly that they were in favor of going on the war path in the spring.
