WE REPORT TO HAVE

The Baroness Seilliere Will Introduce Her Daughter, Miss Constance Livermore.

10,000 VISITORS AT RESORT

Mr. Richard Hall Opens Studio with a House Warming—Luncheon Party for the Marquise de Moraes.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] NEWPORT, R. I., Sunday, August 23.—Newport was fairly swarming with excursionists to-day, fully ten thousand visiting the city. From New York there came about one-third of this number, who landed here in a driving rainstorm, that began about the time the big boat from Newport appeared in the harbor and ceased just about the time appointed for sailing.

The New Yorkers, though, would not be denied, most of them braving the down-pour and coming ashore. Being very thoroughly protected, most of them were thoroughly refreshed.

Hundreds came from Boston. Providence and points on Long Island Sound. Just after noon the public beach seemed swarming with human beings, while on the cliff walk through the lawns of cottagers there was one long procession of men and women.

MISS LIVERMORE'S DEBUT. Still another charming young girl is to be introduced here this season, the Baroness Seilliere having announced a dinner party for Friday evening, September 4, to present her only daughter, Miss Constance Livermore. This is interesting as another indication that September is to be very gay, and it is otherwise notable as marking a resumption of entertaining on the part of the Baroness, who for a year has been in mourning and who for several years previous gave no entertainments on account of the illness of her mother.

Miss Livermore will be presented at Inglehul, the attractive residence of her mother. As the dinner takes place on the evening of the day after the wedding of Miss Gladys Brooks and Mr. Eugene V. R. Thayer, of Boston, many of the guests will come here for that event, which will probably attend.

With receptions, luncheons and dinners this was a gay Sunday for Newport. LUNCHEONS FOR THE MARQUISE DE MORAES. Mrs. James P. Kernochan gave a luncheon at her summer residence for the late Marquise de Moraes, daughter of the late Louis de Moraes, a well known banker of New York. Among Mrs. Kernochan's guests were the Baron and Baroness Seilliere, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Francis, Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lantier Norrie, the Count Kinsky, the Baron Meyer, Mr. James T. Woodward and Mr. Francis G. O'Connell.

A charming incident of a busy Sunday was the reception with music given by Mr. and Mrs. William T. Bull at their colonial home, Dudley House, one of the landmarks of the place. Mrs. Bull, who wore a gown of white and pink, was assisted in receiving by Miss Mary Lockland, of St. Louis. There was music by Mrs. Seabury Ford, soprano, and Henry Pontecorvo, tenor, who sang in French, Italian and English.

Some of those who accepted invitations were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Flint, Jr.; Mrs. Juliet T. Davies; Mrs. Perry Belmont; Baron Meyer; Mr. L. Fred Pearson; Mrs. A. Lantier Norrie; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. S. Budge; Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell Clark; W. Bratt Stokes; George Murray; Richard Hall; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Francis; Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Oelrichs; Frederick Adkins; Miss Augusta Hunter; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Garrison; Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Bull and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Derby.

FLORAL DINNER AT THE CASINO. The Casino was the scene of another pretty and elaborate dinner this evening, the host being Mr. Louis Brugliere. Forty guests sat under the branches of towering tree ferns, which came up through the center of the room. The floral arrangements, by Hodgson, consisted of borders and garlands of pink hydrangeas entwined with ferns, but the principal attention was paid to the arrangement of the room, the ceiling of which was hung with pastels. The walls were decorated with Japanese lanterns. Vases of cut flowers were placed about in effective positions.

Among Mr. Brugliere's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Lehr, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. S. Budge, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel, Mr. Charles Greenough, Mr. and Mrs. Peter D. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. S. Budge, Miss Louise Scott, Mr. Reginald Ronalds, Mr. R. P. Doherty, Miss Chanda Polo, Mr. James M. Van Alen, Herman Norman, Mr. Lispenard Stewart, Miss Greta Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Jr., and Mr. Percy Wyndham.

ROBBER WARNING AT STUDIO. After dinners at the Casino and elsewhere a delightful house warming was given by Mr. Richard Hall at his new studio in Boilevards. Many of his recent portraits were hung, among them those of Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Mr. Edward de Rozette and Mrs. E. Vanderbilt Sr.; Miss Agnes Hall, who is here on her first visit to this country, received with her family. The studio was hung with Japanese lanterns and festoons of vines and flowers. An elaborate musical programme was rendered by Mrs. Henry Kuss, Signor Alfonso Pontecorvo, Miss Marie Petite recited a French ballad.

Some of those invited were Mrs. Astor and Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel, Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Dyer, Miss Laura Swan, Mrs. Richard Gambrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. DeForest Danielson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Lehr, Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Lydig, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden May, Miss M. M. Ellis, Miss Chanda Polo, Mrs. W. H. S. Budge, Miss Rosamond Street, Messrs. J. J. Cass Ledyard, Miss Emily Taylor, Miss Natalie Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, Dr. and Mrs. Bull, Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Burden and the Misses Burden.

The steam yacht Narada, Vice Commodore Henry Walters, returned from the yacht races this morning, bringing Mr. I. Townsend Burden, Mr. Edward Gray and Mr. Edward Bailey.

Registered at the Casino to-day were Captain and Mrs. de Puite, Miss McCleary, Mr. Norman Hancock, Mrs. Bancroft, Mr. Eugene Higgins and Miss Chew. Captain and Mrs. de Puite and Miss McCleary of Parkville, guests of the Casino will go to Linwood, the country place of Miss Virginia Butler, of New York, where dinner will be given.

Among those who are to participate in the parade will be Malcolm McCurney, Edwin Caldwell, Rowan Tyson, Dr. Thomas Southworth, Misses Edith and Gertrude Greene, Miss Grace Sadwick, Miss Edith Rodman and Miss Isabel Ashwell.

PREMIER ENDS WAR ON AUTOMOBILES

M. Combes Annuls All Mayoral Ordinances Which Limit Speed in France.

ALL MUST BE TREATED ALIKE. No Limitation Allowed That Does Not Apply Equally to Every Form of Vehicle.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.] HERALD BUREAU, No. 49 AVENUE DE L'OPERA, PARIS, Monday.

The HERALD's European edition publishes the following: M. Combes, the Premier, has just taken a step which will certainly earn for him the gratitude of every automobilist. He has sent a circular to prefects throughout France instructing them to annul all Mayoral ordinances which limit the speed of automobiles unless they also apply them to every other form of vehicle.

This administration measure means neither more nor less than that automobiles are no longer to be treated as parasites in the world of transport. This is justice. It will still be open for old fossils in the shape of Mayors to rule that automobiles shall not traverse their communes at a speed exceeding a snail's pace, but only on condition that the rule shall apply with equal rigor to carriages, cabs, carts and animal drawn vehicles of any and every description. A Mayor who should issue such an ordinance would be as unpopular with his electors as a dog in a skittle alley.

M. Combes' circular is dictated by common sense and is in accordance with the doctrine of equality, which is one of the basic principles of the republic. That such a circular should ever have been necessary is significant evidence of the auto-phobia that animates certain of these petty tyrants of the village.

PEOPLE MORE LIBERAL. Mr. R. E. Jarrig Says Their Attitude Is Becoming More Reasonable in Spite of Prejudice.

Mr. R. E. Jarrig, foreign representative of the Automobile Exchange and Storage Company of this city, said last night that he believed the proposed movement in France to make all speed laws apply to animal drawn vehicles as well as to automobiles was the beginning of a sentiment that is growing and will soon be put into law all over the world. Mr. Jarrig is a native of France and said there was the same prejudice against automobiles in certain parts of that country as exists here.

But it is almost impossible to control the speed in the country districts of France," he said. "The roads there are much better than here and there are only a few gentlemen to enforce the laws they have. In this country, the people are all the time growing more liberal and reasonable in their attitude to automobiles, unless, of course, unless automobiles can have some latitude in the matter of speed they are not of much value."

HEAVY THUNDERSTORM DELUGES PARIS. Rain Came Down in Sheets, Streets Were Deserted and Closed Cabs at a Premium.

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.] HERALD BUREAU, No. 49 AVENUE DE L'OPERA, PARIS, Monday. The HERALD's European edition publishes the following: Yesterday probably held the summer record for rain. The day began with a shower in the early morning and forenoon, but by one o'clock this increased to a steady down-pour.

From two to six o'clock the rain came down in sheets, accompanied by flashes of lightning and distant thunder. The streets were completely deserted and closed cabs were at a premium.

FAMOUS ART WORKS TO BE SHOWN HERE

Private Collections of Europe Will Be Exhibited by a New Association.

MAY BUILD A TEMPLE OF ART. Encouragement for the Association from Foreign Collectors—Finest Specimens Will Be Brought Over.

Efforts of lovers of painting and sculpture have culminated in the formation of the International Fine Arts Association. A charter was granted at the last session of the Legislature, a permanent organization has been formed, and plans of the most comprehensive nature for exhibitions of art objects have progressed so far that it may be said that in this city an exhibition surpassing any that has been attempted heretofore in this country.

The officers of the organization are: President, Charles T. Barney; Vice President, James Henry Smith; Treasurer, J. McLean Walton; Secretary, Thomas E. Kirby; Directors, Mr. Barney, Mr. Smith, Stanford White, Frank S. Witherbee, Charles W. Gould, William M. Luffan, William C. Whitney, John L. Cadwallader, James L. Breesse and Frank D. Millet.

The purpose of the association is to aid artists as well as students and to extend the love of art. This will be done by exhibiting the collections of art objects to be displayed at least to enjoy the sight of the finest specimens of the artist's product in the private galleries of this country, as well as many from famed collections abroad.

Although there will probably be a charge for sustaining the association, it is to be defrayed and the proceeds of exhibitions will be given to some charity. The men who have associated themselves before Americans at home some of the famous works of art that are held in private collections in Europe, and which are periodically shown there at public exhibitions, but never have been brought here because no organized, responsible body could solicit their importation, guarantee their proper care and attend to the details of exhibition.

Members of the association who have been abroad this summer have in a quiet way made inquiries among collectors and met a very general and hearty encouragement. Every field of art is to be comprehended in the scheme of the association, and it is further intended that as soon as possible there shall be a temple of art erected, which will house the collection of art objects, and which will be shown there at public exhibitions, but never have been brought here because no organized, responsible body could solicit their importation, guarantee their proper care and attend to the details of exhibition.
