

BROOKLYN BELIEVES THAT ODELL WILL SOLVE THE REAPPORTIONMENT PROBLEM

WOODRUFF FACTION OFFENDS ODELL MEN

Michael J. Dady, the Former Governor's Representative, Not Consulted in Reapportionment Plans.

VIEW OF DISTRICT LEADERS

Do Not Want New Senate Lines Drawn so That Any Two Party Chieftains Would Have to Fight.

Former Governor Odell's activity in overthrowing the reapportionment plans of Herbert Parsons in Manhattan has led Brooklyn republicans to believe that he will take a hand in the division of the Senatorial districts in Kings county.

Michael J. Dady, Mr. Odell's representative in Brooklyn, has not yet been consulted by the Woodruff faction in regard to the reapportionment, and his followers are resenting the slight they believe has been put upon him.

Mr. Dady announced yesterday that the interests of the district leaders, whose advice had been so far dispensed with, would be properly and thoroughly cared for.

While Mr. Dady would say nothing more about the matter, this was taken by the Woodruff republicans as a warning that Odell would take care of the Brooklyn reapportionment, so soon as he had concluded his work in Manhattan.

The trouble Mr. Woodruff is having is due to his desire to divide the county so that four of the eight Senate districts will be surely republican and at the same time make the reelection of Senators Cooper and Gardner certain. His opponents assert that his entire effort is being made along the line of securing a majority for his own party.

Five tentative plans of dividing the county have been prepared, but objections have been raised to all of them by the district leaders. It is believed to be going into a district with another leader, where there would be at once a trial of strength to see which one would control. At the same time it has been found almost impossible to make the division without placing two of the present leaders in the same Assembly district.

DEMAND $1,000 OR MAN'S LIFE

Two Men Attack Saloon Keeper and Wound His Wife, but Are Put to Flight.

Entering a saloon at No. 622 New Utrecht avenue, owned by Patricio Falcone, reputed one of the wealthiest of the Italian colony in South Brooklyn, two of Falcone's fellow countrymen last night demanded $1,000.

Falcone's wife heard her husband's yell when the intruders started to carry out their threats by binding the saloon keeper's arms, and ran to the barroom. When she saw what was going on, she jumped out of a window. One of the men slashed her in the face with a razor.

The men fled, and the saloon keeper was running from the saloon. He pursued them, but was outdistanced. Falcone's word was sewed up by Dr. Latta, of the Norwegian Hospital.

TRANSFER FOR A TRANSFER.

Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company Reconsiders an Order to Conductors Obnoxious to Public.

After being much criticized the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company has at last ordered conductors to issue transfer tickets to passengers desiring the same upon receipt of a cash fare or another transfer. In other words, they will issue a transfer on a transfer.

SUES HER BOY HUSBAND.

Eighteen-Year-Old Bride Has Youth in Court Charged with Abandonment and Non-Support.

Charged by his eighteen-year-old bride with non-support and abandonment, Bernard A. Riley, sixteen, of No. 1,601 Brooklyn avenue, was arraigned in the Gates Avenue Court yesterday and held on his own recognizance until Wednesday.

BABY FIRE ALARM WORKS.

By the choking of a baby, the family of T. F. Archer, of Union avenue and Clinton place, Jamaica, was saved early yesterday morning from suffocation. The baby

Men's Club Musicales Successful

Miss Gertrude Watkins, Who Has a Soprano Voice, Was a Soloist at the Last One.

Very gratifying has been the success of the series of musicales under the auspices of the Men's Club of the Washington Avenue Baptist Church, and they have been accounted among the most delightful social affairs of the Lenten season.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Joseph B. Coghlan gave a dinner of twelve covers last evening at the Navy Yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Redman, of No. 261 Washington avenue, returned home March 24, after spending a month at the Princess Hotel, Bermuda.

Among the arrivals from Europe on the Graf Waldersee from Hamburg on Thursday were Mrs. Charles C. Whitney and Miss Esther C. Whitney, of No. 260 Garfield place.

Miss Sadie Fox Williams and Miss Frances Williams, of No. 8 Pierpont street, are registered in Paris this week.

Miss Marie Apollon will give a luncheon on Tuesday at her home, No. 146 Jerusalem street for Miss Bessie S. Jordan.

Judge and Mrs. William Dickey, who are traveling abroad, are now in Constantinople but are expected home about the middle of April.

awakened Mr. Zrober, who found its room closed with a key.

Mr. Edward M. Groat was the hostess at a very enjoyable bridge party yesterday afternoon, at her home, No. 389 Carroll street.

MRS. GROUT'S BRIDGE.

Mrs. Edward M. Groat was the hostess at a very enjoyable bridge party yesterday afternoon, at her home, No. 389 Carroll street.

Julian D. Fairchild, Mrs. William J. Gaynor, Mrs. Campbell C. Brown, Mrs. Edwin Howell Barry, Mrs. James Hodges, Mrs. Maudie M. Childs, Mrs. Anne D. Carrer, Mrs. Clinton De Witt Burdick, Mrs. William Jelliffe, Miss Belzer, Mrs. John Dittmars and Mrs. Alfred Wise.

MRS. LUPTON RECEIVES.

In spite of the disagreeable weather the drawing rooms of Mrs. Frank M. Lupton, of No. 80 St. Mark's avenue, were crowded with guests at a large reception which she gave yesterday afternoon from four until seven o'clock.

At a dancing party, given by the young men of the Masonic fraternity in the Bedford section at the Pouch Gallery last evening, each person was given a card bearing the picture of an animal. There were duplicate cards, and it was in this way that the young people were supposed to select their partners.

FUNERAL INSTEAD OF WEDDING

Richard W. Walsh, Civil Engineer, Dies in Utah—His Fiancee Was Miss Marion E. Beall.

Miss Marion E. Beall, of No. 1,616 Beverly road, Flatbush, yesterday was notified of the sudden death of her fiancé, Richard W. Walsh, in Utah. Their wedding was set for last Wednesday, and the ceremony was to have taken place in the home of Major Thomas B. Beall, Mr. Walsh was stricken with pneumonia as he was about to start East, one week ago.

IS THROWN FROM AMBULANCE.

Although Painfully Hurt by Accident Surgeon Hastens on His Way to an Injured Man.

While responding to a call yesterday at Throop avenue and Wallabout street, Williamsburg, where James Maher, a driver, who had fallen from a truck, was suffering from painful injuries, Ambulance Surgeon Bruning, of the Williamsburg Hospital,

FIFTEEN CENTS FOR CLAIM FOR $692

Startling Testimony Produced in the Trial of W. O. Miles, Lawyer Accused of Frauds.

WITNESSES SIGNED BLANKS

One Woman Says Papers in Her Case Were Drawn Up Without Any Knowledge on Her Part.

It was a field day for the prosecution yesterday in the County Court, Brooklyn, at the trial of William O. Miles, a lawyer, and five others, charged with conspiracy in presenting alleged fraudulent sewer damage claims to the city, but counsel for the indicted men declared that, perfect though District Attorney John F. Clarke believes his claim of evidence to be, it has weak links that cannot withstand the strain of attack.

Witnesses signed blanks, and the prosecution against Miles, who is under indictment, although he maintained he often carried as much as $100,000 worth of stock in his store, he said the claims presented to the city by Miles amounting in all to $69,822, were out of all proportion to his genuine losses.

Witness said Miles told him he would not have to appear in court. The lawyer was to keep half of what he got for his fee.

Mrs. Ellen McCarren, of No. 159 Bond street, testified that the claims for $6,000 presented in her name were not only excessive, but had been drawn up without her knowledge.

Other witnesses were Mrs. Addie O'Donnell, of No. 82 Wyckoff street; Mrs. Margaret Coleman, of No. 32 Carroll street; John Beete, a real estate expert; Mrs. Annie Metz, of No. 333 Halsey street; William Rieger, of No. 1,399 Halsey street; Thomas Bell, of No. 62 Emerson place; and Plomena Bruno, of No. 138 Columbia street.

All testified that the claims filed in their names were excessive, and estimated without their knowledge.

Assistant Corporation Counsel O'Neill testified that when he began to investigate the claims and held up those of Mrs. McCarren, who testified on Thursday Miles had offered to compromise for $300, and finally came down to $300.

"I found," said Mr. O'Neill, "that Mrs. McCarren's loss would be fully covered by the $15, and Miles finally offered to take this sum, but I said I would not give him fifteen cents, as the claims, as filed, were manifestly fraudulent."

Judge Crans, earlier in the week, announced that in view of the importance of the case, he would hold court to-day, but out of respect to Judge Wilcox, Mr. Smith's memory he rescheduled the order, and the trials will go over until Monday.

WILL HONOR DEAD JURIST'S MEMORY

Committee of Brooklyn Bar to Arrange Memorial Service for the Late Judge Wilmot M. Smith.

PROMINENT MEMBERS MEET

Special Train Will Be Run for Lawyers, Who Will Attend Funeral To-day at Patchogue.

At a meeting of members of the Bench and Bar of the Second Judicial Department, held yesterday in the Kings County Court House, under a call of the Brooklyn Bar Association, a committee was appointed to arrange for a memorial service for the late Wilmot M. Smith, Judge of the Supreme Court, who died Wednesday, at his home, in Patchogue, L. I. This committee will also represent the Bar at the funeral this afternoon.

Albert G. McDonald, president of the Bar Association, presided and spoke feelingly of Judge Smith. Seated among the members were Judges Maddox, Kelly and Burr, associates on the Supreme Bench with Judge Smith, and Surrogate Church and Judge Wilkin, of the Court of Special Sessions.

Mr. McDonald named the following committee: Former Judge Reynolds, James McKean, Colonel James D. Bell, Colonel A. E. Lamb, H. C. M. Ingraham, former Judge William B. Hurd, Jr., Isaac M. Knapp, United States District Attorney William J. Youngs, former Judge James Troy and Mr. McDonald, ex officio.

To accommodate the large number of lawyers who have signified their intention to attend the funeral, this afternoon, at the Congregational Church in Patchogue, a special train will leave the Flatbush avenue station of the Long Island Railroad at half past eleven o'clock this morning.

Action on the death of Judge Smith was also taken yesterday by the judges of the Court of Special Sessions, and by the clerks and officers of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

JUDGE SMITH'S FUNERAL.

Services Will Be Held in the Patchogue Congregational Church This Afternoon.

In the Congregational Church, at Patchogue, the funeral services of the late Judge Wilmot M. Smith, of the Supreme Court, will be held at two o'clock this afternoon. The Rev. Sherman W. Haven, of that church, will conduct the services, assisted by the Rev. John W. Maynard, of the Methodist Church.

The pallbearers will be Chief Judge Edgar M. Cullen, of the Court of Appeals; Judges Martin J. Keogh, Samuel P. Maddox and Garrett J. Garretson, all of the Supreme Court; General Horatio King, former Surrogate; Nathaniel Pettys, of Suffolk county; County Judge Walter M. Jaycox of Suffolk, and John E. Ketcham, who was the late Judge's court stenographer.

AMHERST STUDENTS IN ENTERTAINMENT

Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs Give Concert That Pleases a Large Audience.

NUMBERS SERIOUS AND GAY

Affair Held in Assembly Hall of Adelphi College Under Auspices of Athletic Association.

Amherst College boys members of the Glee, Banjo and Mandolin clubs found a warm welcome in Brooklyn last night at their concert, in the Assembly Hall of Adelphi College, where they presented a lively medley of college glees, topical songs and ragtime melodies that provoked hearty applause. The programme also featured several "serious" numbers that were very pretty in their harmonies and finely rendered. In detail the programme was:

- Ensemble, Lead Glee, Amherst, Hamilton 1905
- Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs
- Ensemble, Lead Glee, Amherst, Hamilton 1905
- Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs
- The Sweetest Flower that Grows, Hawley Glee Club
- Campus Dreams, Blake (97)
- Robinson Crusoe's Lullaby, Hein
- Headline, Selected
- Mr. Dillan

Alma Mater, Hamilton (1906) Glee Club

Darktown Jubilee, Banjo Club

Peter Gray, Banjo Club

Southern Melody, Banjo Club

Moonlight, Mandolin Club

Fill Your Stools, Mandolin Club

Ensemble, Cheerful and Sweet, Pierce (1904) Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs

Members of the clubs are Charles A. Vinal, 1901, manager; R. Jewett Jones, 1907, assistant manager; Glee Club—James S. Hamilton, 1906, leader; Walter S. Price, 1907, assistant leader; R. W. Pugsley, 1909; W. S. Price, 1907; E. A. Leland, 1907; and H. W. Davis, 1906, first tenors; J. S. Hamilton, 1906; B. H. Matteson, 1906; F. S. Bale, 1906; O. A. Locke, 1907, second tenors; C. A. Vinal, 1906; P. W. DeLoe, 1906; P. A. Brigham, 1906; and H. C. Crawford, 1905. First basses, and N. P. Foster, 1906; G. M. Howe, 1906; J. M. Hunter, 1909; and H. E. Smith, 1908, second basses.

Banjo Club—Burton W. Liddell, '06, leader; Charles E. A. Leland, '06; A. H. Mellen, '06; B. L. Atwood, '06; W. J. Washburn, '06; G. H. H. Rishenaker, '06; E. K. Brown, '06; E. T. Hall, '06; Mandolin Club—Norman P. Foster, '06; E. T. Hall, '06; P. W. DeLoe, '06; P. A. Brigham, '06; P. R. Cook, '06; G. Burros, '06; M. W. Colebrook, '06; V. J. E. C. Goytlan, '06; Second Mandolin—H. E. C. Fisher, '06; W. P. Draper, '06; G. H. H. Rishenaker, '06; E. K. Brown, '06; E. T. Hall, '06; C. G. Meeklen, '06; Reader—A. I. Dillon, '06.

The concert was given under the auspices of the Adelphi Academy Athletic Association.

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

Balsito, who is reputed to be wealthy, declares his arrest is a mistake, but the

ALLEGUE USE OF POSTAL FUNDS

Post Office Officials Say Frank G. Balsito Charged Money for Immigrants.

Frank G. Balsito, a leader among the Italian republicans of Brooklyn, was examined yesterday before United States Commissioner Benedict on the charge of falling to turn over money received for the sale of money orders.

BOUGHT ALASKA GOLD MINE STOCK TO CLEAR HIS CHURCH FROM DEBT

The Rev. Carl C. Jaeger Tells in Supplementary Proceedings How He Thought Investment of $500 Borrowed from Two Parishioners Would Return at Least $10,000.

When the Rev. Carl C. Jaeger, of No. 333 Stockholm street, pastor of the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church, was examined yesterday in supplementary proceedings in the interest of John U. Schless and Mrs. Manny, two of his congregation who hold judgment against him, it was disclosed that the pastor, in the hope of clearing the $10,000 debt on his church, had borrowed $500 and invested it in an Alaska gold mine.

Mr. Jaeger said that the scheme was first broached to him by another minister, the Rev. Emanuel Glasser, who is the editor of a German religious newspaper. The prospects were so glowing that he interested the two parishioners who are

BOUGHT ALASKA GOLD MINE STOCK TO CLEAR HIS CHURCH FROM DEBT

The Rev. Carl C. Jaeger Tells in Supplementary Proceedings How He Thought Investment of $500 Borrowed from Two Parishioners Would Return at Least $10,000.

When the Rev. Carl C. Jaeger, of No. 333 Stockholm street, pastor of the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church, was examined yesterday in supplementary proceedings in the interest of John U. Schless and Mrs. Manny, two of his congregation who hold judgment against him, it was disclosed that the pastor, in the hope of clearing the $10,000 debt on his church, had borrowed $500 and invested it in an Alaska gold mine.

Mr. Jaeger said that the scheme was first broached to him by another minister, the Rev. Emanuel Glasser, who is the editor of a German religious newspaper. The prospects were so glowing that he interested the two parishioners who are

BOUGHT ALASKA GOLD MINE STOCK TO CLEAR HIS CHURCH FROM DEBT

The Rev. Carl C. Jaeger Tells in Supplementary Proceedings How He Thought Investment of $500 Borrowed from Two Parishioners Would Return at Least $10,000.

When the Rev. Carl C. Jaeger, of No. 333 Stockholm street, pastor of the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church, was examined yesterday in supplementary proceedings in the interest of John U. Schless and Mrs. Manny, two of his congregation who hold judgment against him, it was disclosed that the pastor, in the hope of clearing the $10,000 debt on his church, had borrowed $500 and invested it in an Alaska gold mine.

Mr. Jaeger said that the scheme was first broached to him by another minister, the Rev. Emanuel Glasser, who is the editor of a German religious newspaper. The prospects were so glowing that he interested the two parishioners who are

BOUGHT ALASKA GOLD MINE STOCK TO CLEAR HIS CHURCH FROM DEBT

The Rev. Carl C. Jaeger Tells in Supplementary Proceedings How He Thought Investment of $500 Borrowed from Two Parishioners Would Return at Least $10,000.

When the Rev. Carl C. Jaeger, of No. 333 Stockholm street, pastor of the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church, was examined yesterday in supplementary proceedings in the interest of John U. Schless and Mrs. Manny, two of his congregation who hold judgment against him, it was disclosed that the pastor, in the hope of clearing the $10,000 debt on his church, had borrowed $500 and invested it in an Alaska gold mine.

Mr. Jaeger said that the scheme was first broached to him by another minister, the Rev. Emanuel Glasser, who is the editor of a German religious newspaper. The prospects were so glowing that he interested the two parishioners who are

BOUGHT ALASKA GOLD MINE STOCK TO CLEAR HIS CHURCH FROM DEBT

The Rev. Carl C. Jaeger Tells in Supplementary Proceedings How He Thought Investment of $500 Borrowed from Two Parishioners Would Return at Least $10,000.

When the Rev. Carl C. Jaeger, of No. 333 Stockholm street, pastor of the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church, was examined yesterday in supplementary proceedings in the interest of John U. Schless and Mrs. Manny, two of his congregation who hold judgment against him, it was disclosed that the pastor, in the hope of clearing the $10,000 debt on his church, had borrowed $500 and invested it in an Alaska gold mine.

Mr. Jaeger said that the scheme was first broached to him by another minister, the Rev. Emanuel Glasser, who is the editor of a German religious newspaper. The prospects were so glowing that he interested the two parishioners who are

BOUGHT ALASKA GOLD MINE STOCK TO CLEAR HIS CHURCH FROM DEBT

The Rev. Carl C. Jaeger Tells in Supplementary Proceedings How He Thought Investment of $500 Borrowed from Two Parishioners Would Return at Least $10,000.

When the Rev. Carl C. Jaeger, of No. 333 Stockholm street, pastor of the Ebenezer Presbyterian Church, was examined yesterday in supplementary proceedings in the interest of John U. Schless and Mrs. Manny, two of his congregation who hold judgment against him, it was disclosed that the pastor, in the hope of clearing the $10,000 debt on his church, had borrowed $500 and invested it in an Alaska gold mine.

Mr. Jaeger said that the scheme was first broached to him by another minister, the Rev. Emanuel Glasser, who is the editor of a German religious newspaper. The prospects were so glowing that he interested the two parishioners who are

ABRAHAM AND STRAUS
BROOKLYN

Store Opens 8:30 A. M. Closes 6 P. M.

The carriage way from Schermerhorn Street to our Porte Cochere is again open and may be used by all vehicles, as formerly, to avoid the congestion on Livingston Street.

Important! to our Porte Cochere is again open and may be used by all vehicles, as formerly, to avoid the congestion on Livingston Street.