PARAGUAY READY TO SUE FOR PEACE

Minister of Justice Reaches Buenos Ayres Seeking Settlement of Quarrel.

BATTLE WITH REBELS

Brother of President Rojas Among Those Killed in Fight North of Asuncion.

BY MEXICAN CABLE TO THE HERALD. BUENOS AYRES, via GALVESTON, TEXAS, Friday.—Dr. Codos, Minister of Justice of Paraguay, arrived here last night, and although he left Asuncion before the diplomatic incident of Tuesday it is believed he received while on his journey instructions to settle the conflict. He will be received tomorrow by Senor Bosch, Minister of Foreign Affairs. The archives of the legation at Asuncion have been delivered to the Consul. The government had contemplated asking the American Legation to guard the archives.

There was an encounter between the government forces and the rebels at the Villa Rosario, north of Asuncion, yesterday. Among the killed was a brother of President Rojas. Prominent merchants have called on President Rojas proposing mediation for peace. The President accepted the offer and ordered a cessation of operations during the negotiations. The merchants asked the intervention of the Ministers, and the Argentine and Brazilian naval officers called for a conference between the revolutionists to establish terms of peace.

Gardner, British Vice Consul in New York, on February 14. The ceremony was to have been performed in the Church of the Holy Innocents by Cardinal Farley, but it will take place in St. Patrick's Cathedral, the Cardinal officiating. Eight hundred invitations are to be issued, many of them going to Europe. A reception will be held in the Hotel Knickerbocker.

YOUNG FRIENDS OF MISS TAFT AT DANCE AT WHITE HOUSE

President and Mrs. Taft Continue Series of Entertainments for Her—Diplomatists Dine with Mr. and Mrs. MacVeagh.

HERALD BUREAU. No. 1566 H STREET, N. W., WASHINGTON, D. C., Friday. The President and Mrs. Taft gave another dance in the White House for their daughter, Miss Helen Taft, and the younger circle of society to-night. It was one of a series of dances which had been arranged early in the season, and which has been a feature of the winter.

Mrs. Taft and Miss Taft received the guests in the blue room. The dancing was done in the east room. At the south end of the ballroom a platform had been built for part of the Marine Band. Palms and ferns were banked behind the platform and on the mantels, and in the window recesses there were tall jars of roses. In the state dining room the supper table was decorated with large flat clusters of pink carnations. The blue and green rooms were decorated with ferns and palms and carnations. The same scheme was carried out in the rest of the room.

There were about two hundred guests, including many of the debutantes, members of the younger married set, bachelors of the diplomatic corps and the army and the navy. Several members of the Cabinet and their wives called to watch the dancers. Supper was served at midnight. Before the dance Miss Helen Taft was the chief guest at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell at their home, in the city. The Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. MacVeagh gave a dinner to-night. They had with them the British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, the German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff, Senator de Canning, the Brazilian Ambassador, Count Molin, the Minister of Denmark, Postmaster General Hitchcock, the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer, Senator and Mrs. Winthrop Murray Crane, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Catlin, of St. Louis; Mrs. Henry Clow, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. John Waller and Mr. and Mrs. John Borden, of Chicago; Mrs. Richard Townsend, Mrs. Marshall Field, Mrs. Hope Slater, Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. Charles MacVeagh, and Mr. Allison B. Armour, of New York; Mr. Winifred T. Denison, Mr. Alva A. Adee, Assistant Secretary of State, and Mr. Owen Aldis.

Later in the evening the official, diplomatic and army and navy circles attended a reception held by the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Meyer.

MAGNIFICENT ORIENTAL BALL GIVEN BY MRS. C. T. CROCKER

Hostess Appears as the Beautiful Scheherazade of "Arabian Nights" in San Francisco.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD. SAN FRANCISCO, Friday.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Templeton Crocker gave a magnificently appointed Oriental ball to-night at the St. Francis Hotel, where two hundred guests departed themselves in the characters and costumes of the Far East. They represented all periods, from the reign of King Solomon and the Arabian Nights to the modern dynasties of Turkey, Arabia, Persia and India.

The Colonial ballroom of the St. Francis was transformed into a dazzling reflection of an Oriental palace, where the incense of Eastern temples mingled with the perfume of the seraglio and the costumes of the dancers fitted into the picture. The ball was not an event which was planned in a short time. Before Mr. and Mrs. Crocker returned from their honeymoon trip to Europe they had decreed that historical accuracy of costume should be the essence of the whole project. They chose the Oriental setting because it suggested the most brilliant and picturesque color scheme and the greatest possibility for splendor.

Mrs. Crocker was Scheherazade, the beautiful story teller of the "Arabian Nights." The costume entirely eclipsed that worn by Miss Gertrude Hoffmann, the dancer who impersonated the favorite of the Sultan in the Choreographic dance of her Russian troupe.

Mrs. C. August Sprackels was Thais, the charmer of Alexander the Great and subsequently of Ptolemy. Miss Jennie Crocker's costume was in past shades of green and pink, and the color tones of the costume enabled her to wear her gorgeous emeralds.

Mrs. James Flood appeared as a Persian princess. Her gown was of gold and vivid green with a court train in the picture. The famous Flood diamonds and emeralds.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold I. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Prentiss, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Prentiss, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Southwick, Captain and Mrs. Penion, Mr. and Mrs. King Wood, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney A. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Goepel, Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Whitney, Mrs. James S. Hollinshead, Mr. and Mrs. Reeve Schley, Mr. and Mrs. James Terry, Mrs. Samuel Bowne Dunes and Mr. and Mrs. Vladimir Henshaw.

The Misses Alice Ide, Dorothy H. Sutphin, Alice B. Moss, Janet Buchanan, Henrietta Dana, Grace Frank, Helen Y. Judson, Margaret Behr, Madeleine Litchfield, Marion Litchfield, Elizabeth Clark, Florence Wilks, Ethel Moore, Gertrude C. Brooke, Ruth Dunning, Alice Cordier, Winifred Notman, Carolyn Putnam, M. "SMALL AND EARLY" DANCE BELIES NAME

Society in Providence Meets at It After Attending Various Dinners.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Friday.—In Froebel Hall to-night the third of four "small and early" dances promoted by Mrs. William Grosvenor took place.

More than a dozen dinners preceded the dance, so the dance was not early, nor was it small. Mrs. Henry Pearce, Jr., gave a dinner in her home. Her guests were Colonel and Mrs. Arthur H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bruce Merriman, Mr. Alexander Duncan Chapin, Jr., and Mrs. Charles J. Steedman. Mrs. William E. Waterman gave a dinner for her sister, Mrs. C. Eugene Montgomery, of Lancaster, Pa. Others present were Messrs. Harry Parsons Cross, Charles H. Merriman, Jr.; Theodore Francis Green, Edward R. Bancroft and Robert Snow, Mrs. Frank Harris and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lewis. Other evening dinners were Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mr. Samuel M. Nicholson, Mrs. William P. Comstock and Mrs. Howard Anson Richmond. Mrs. Grosvenor, Mrs. Charles J. Steedman, Mrs. H. H. Nightingale and Mrs. Harry Parsons Cross received the guests at the dance. The Alpha Delta Phi fraternity held a reception in its chapter house this afternoon. The guests were Mrs. Hackett, a member of the fraternity, and Mrs. Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. Hackett also were entertained at the Crown by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pearce, Jr., and Mr. John Carter Brown Woods.

Society Watches Eastern Dances as Guests of Mrs. G. B. Hopkins

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Widener Have Miss St. Denis Dance for Party in Philadelphia.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Friday.—With Miss Ruth St. Dennis, the dancer, as the chief entertainer, men and women of society in this city and New York dined to-night in the ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Widener. About three hundred persons were present. The feature of the entertainment came after the dinner, which was begun at nine o'clock. With the decorated stage as a background, the dancer appeared when the room was darkened. Two spotlights in the balcony were turned upon her, and round after round of applause greeted her.

MRS. GEORGE D. WIDENER

as she went through her mysterious Oriental dances. She was assisted by three East Indians.

The remainder of the ballroom was lavishly decorated, the principal feature of the decoration being the use of a large quantity of Bougainvillea, a vine with pink, trumpet shaped blossoms.

The tables also displayed the best of the decorator's art. The center table, at which Mrs. Widener was seated, was almost covered with pink Killarney roses. These flowers were in a high plateau and were surrounded by a circle of cut flowers. The other tables were decorated in similar fashion, some with roses, others with carnations and lilacs, rhodis were also used.

All the members of the Widener family were there, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Widener, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener, Miss Eleanor Elkins Widener, Mr. George D. Widener, Jr., and Mr. Harry E. Widener presided each at a table.

Among the guests were Miss Albert Brinton, Mr. Lyndon Bladde, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pepper Vaux, Miss Anna Warren Ingersoll, Mr. and Mrs. Wharton Sinkler, Mrs. Voorhees Draeton, Mrs. B. Franklin W. James, Mrs. J. Willis Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Barkie, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Pembroke Jones, Mrs. Frederick Thurston Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James H. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Langhorne Bullitt Dick, Dr. Richard Woods, Mrs. Williams Burden and Mr. Thomas Sildell.

SILVER WEDDING DAY KEPT.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Dresser Celebrate Anniversary with Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Dresser held a reception last night at their home, No. 284 Greene avenue, Brooklyn, to celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

The guests were assisted in receiving by Misses Annie H. Duncan, Mattie W. Walker, Marjorie Blydenburgh and Gertrude L. Clark. Mrs. Dresser wore a costume of white satin with rose point lace. Pink roses were used to decorate the supper table.

Among the guests were many who had attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Dresser twenty-five years ago, including three of the four ushers, Messrs. Edgar W. Turnbull, Sidney B. Clark and William Dimard. The fourth usher, Mr. H. Bernard Combe, was unable to be present. Other guests were Dr. John H. Finley, Colonel Asa Bird Gardiner and General and Mrs. Horatio C. King.

Mr. and Mrs. Pulitzer will go to Palm Beach early next month, and later will go to England to visit Lord and Lady Ray.

PROVE WOMEN DO WANT THE BALLOT

Analysis of Voting in California Is Offered as a Reply to Argument of Anti-Suffragists.

Sixty-six thousand five hundred women voted in the city of Los Angeles in the recent election; seventy thousand were registered. Only 6,771 men voted, although 110,000 were registered.

Where are the men who voted to say "yes" women do not want it," and professed themselves ready to vote for suffrage whenever the women declared themselves as desirous of having the franchise? If voting proves the desire to vote then the women of Los Angeles have proved it for all time.

October 10 of last year, says Collier's, the women of California were enfranchised, December 6 the women of Los Angeles participated in the most important civic election that has ever taken place in that city. For the women to register there was less than one month, and yet in those thirty days seventy thousand women registered, seven times as many as men.

There are less than ten thousand women who do not register, and who did not register. In many precincts every woman registered voted, while eighty per cent of the men registered was the highest record in any precinct.

The greatest obstacle prevailed prior to the election. Schools for voters were established everywhere, and the women were so well instructed that when election day came they marked their ballots more expeditiously than the men and asked fewer questions. The women's vote on the three city ordinances was significant.

The most important was a prohibition ordinance so drastic that no citizen could have offered a drink and a feast even in his own house. Even the Anti-Saloon League did not give the ordinance its approval. There were fanatics, however, who hoped that the women would vote for it. Some did, but the vote stood 81,691 for to 87,344 against the measure.

The other two city ordinances were carried—one for a municipal newspaper, and the other requiring street car companies to equip the streets with a "tribly" rail—a rail with a flange which will better preserve the city's paving.

It would not be understood that the "power element" had the entire thirty thousand votes against suffrage in San Francisco. The most aristocratic neighborhoods gave as large a majority against the amendment as did the worst "tenements" in the country districts.

In the country districts the women did not stand at the polls, but got men to do it for them. The farmers and country merchants voted for suffrage overwhelmingly. The miners voted for it, too. The vineyardists were not opposed, and every wine growing county was carried for suffrage.

Day Like Summer in St. Augustine

Straw Hats, Flannels and Light Gowns Worn—Reception Held at Golf Club.

[SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE HERALD.] ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Friday.—St. Augustine to-day came into her own weather, a bright, warm day tempered by gentle breezes that made summer gowns, straw hats and flannels comfortable everywhere.

There was a reception and tea at the St. Augustine Golf Club house this afternoon. Mrs. Andrew Anderson and Mrs. M. D. Hardin received the callers, and Mrs. John M. Brooke poured tea and Mrs. Thomas A. Lawton served punch. The lowest scores in the putting match were made by Mrs. William N. P. Darrow, Miss Ella K. Banning, Mr. Charles A. Maie and Mr. Richard Wayne.

There was an orchestral concert at tea in the music room of the Ponce de Leon. These concerts and teas will continue on Fridays during the season.

The weekly dance in the Alcazar last night was enjoyed by many visitors and residents. Mrs. John M. Brooke, Mrs. W. J. Russell, Mrs. E. D. Morgan, Mrs. Fredrick Himman, Mrs. H. H. Benedict, Mrs. Hiram Berry and Mrs. Julius Fairchild were present. The turkey trot was introduced by Miss A. Weatherhead and Mr. Charles Weatherhead, of Cleveland, but was not adopted by others.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coppell and Mr. and Mrs. John Weeks, of New York, arrived at the Ponce de Leon to-day. They came in their private car.

At the Alcazar are Mr. and Mrs. Joel Adler and Mr. and Mrs. T. D. J. Moller, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Durand

In China.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—"Bishop Logan Herbert Boies, of Hankow," said a New York clergyman, "must be profoundly interested in the Chinese revolution. Bishop Root stands very high with the Hankow Chinese."

"He once told me that when he first went to China he had a good deal of difficulty in remembering faces. He mentioned this difficulty to a mandarin. He said:—'I'm getting over it now, but in the beginning I saw in Hankow you all looked like the same face.'"

"Two years ago," said the intelligent mandarin, smiling, "but why not say two questions?"

Remembering the Absent.

Washington Star.—"I guess I'm getting into this social game all right," said Mr. Cumrox. "Be polite and courteous, yet formal. That's the idea."

"What have you been doing?" inquired his wife sharply. "You know them people who sent regrets because they couldn't come to our party?"

"Yes." "Well, after I saw the party I sat down and sent 'em congratulations."

Incredible.
